NOTICES

MORNING PRAYER ‘ON ZOOM’ – IAN WHITLEY WRITES:

I am holding Morning Prayer on Zoom at 9 am on every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. I will use the Common Worship Morning Prayer liturgy which can be found in the Church of England Daily Prayer App, on the Church of England Website, or if you are old school in the Daily Prayer Red Book. Those who want to join me need to be login on by around 8.50 am so I allocate readings etc. The link is - Join Zoom Meeting Meeting ID: 819 8959 0555 Passcode: 149674NOTE: This will continue during Ian’s absence with others leading.

REVD. IAN WHITELY

Ian will be self-isolating from the 11th April prior to a hospital visit on the 25th. He expects to be back in full circulation 3 to 4 weeks later. During his absence Nigel will be taking the ‘Zoom’ Services on Sundays with the Revd. Kevin Scully covering 8am Communion at Lingfield. The Morning Prayer Services on Tuesday – Thursday each week will continue as well. Keep Ian and Kat in your prayers and pray for a speedy and full recovery.

PLEASE NOTE: While Ian is convalescing he should NOT be contacted. Please contact Nigel or one of the Churchwardens.

Forthcoming FUNERALS.

That of Keith Smith will take place at St Bernard’s on 4th May at 1.30pm while that of Eileen Cooper will take place at St John’s on 30th April at 2pm. Both funerals will be restricted by the normal Covid regulations. Please continue to pray for Karina and Mick respectively as well as their wider families. Nigel also has other funerals to take over the next few weeks and would value your prayer support for him as well as the families concerned.

REOPENING OF ST JOHN’S FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP

We will continue to alternate with an 4pm and 8am Service over ensuing weeks. Please note that each Sunday there will be an 8am and a 4pm Service either at St John’s or at Lingfield. Feel free to attend either Church. Zoom services will also continue at 10am because the Covid rules mean all Services in the Church are currently restricted to just 30 people. Further details to follow.

APCM 2020/2021 Thank you for all who attended last week. My special thanks goes to those who have completed their terms on Deanery Synod &/or PCC and have stood down namely Zoe Nichols, Wendy Rose, Cynthia Taylor & Graham Taylor. We welcome Vanessa Gemmell, Ros Hinton and Jackie Harrison, who join us and Susan Calamassi who has a changed role. Thank you too to those who have continued in position. Please see the notice below!!!!

VACANCIES FOR CHURCH OFFICERS.

. We are still looking for people to help fill the following posts:
Deanery Synod Representatives to attend 4 times a year and be ex officio on the PCC.

PCC Secretary - to take minutes at the PCC meetings.

Grants Officer. We are looking for someone to coordinate applications for grants to support the work at St John's. This is a new post.

PLEASE TAKE SERIOUSLY WHETHER YOU COULD HELP FILL ONE OF THESE ROLES.

HOME GROUPS These meet on Monday evenings at 7.30pm and Wednesday at 2pm – both 'on zoom. '.Email Nigel or Ros for the link.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK – 10-16 May We are looking for volunteers to drop off Christian Aid envelopes in roads in the village which still need to be covered. If you would be able to assist in support of this worthy cause could you please contact Clive Cobby on 01342 833627. Please note that the dropped off envelopes will not need to be collected.

THERE WILL ALSO BE A SPECIAL FUN EVENING on Saturday May 15th at 7.30pm. This will be an evening of “True or False” on Zoom. You are very much encouraged to join in or just enjoy the show as a viewer. This is a joint benefice event featuring a cloned version of “Would I lie to you”, the TV show compered by Rod Brydon. Joiners will be called in turn (if they so wish) to deliver “True or False” statements plus field questions. Then, all the others will decide on T or F and score themselves when the answer is revealed. This will be a light-hearted evening! See separate circulated email for full details. Voluntary contributions will raise funds for Christian Aid. Contact is David Jessup at david.jessup4@gmail.com

SKINCARE PLUS FOR NURSES The following materials are being collected for nursing staff at E Surrey Hospital who have to wear PPE for 12 hr. shifts with just 30 min breaks. Skincare items, toiletries, tea, coffee & soft drinks. Donations to the Vicarage from where they will be passed on. I have recently arranged for a third tranche of materials and money to be taken across to the coordinator. Thank you again.

FACE MASKS – Nigel has a selection of these made by Dormansland Diamonds. Donations to support people at this time. Nigel Tel. 832391
